MEMBERSHIP FORM

Thank you for your interest in the Native Jewelers Society LLC. (NJS), Council for Indigenous Arts and Culture 501c3 (CIAC). As an evolving society, NJS is in a Collaborative Partnership (CP) with CIAC. We are excited to explore opportunities and share in this endeavor with you. The experience and integrity of both organizations will continue to educate, develop and contribute to the support and understanding of the stereotypical way native jewelry and Indigenous arts is perceived. Preserving authenticity, arts and culture is the initiative.

NJS allows jewelers to share and encourage artistic and innovative creations. NJS is committed to maintaining high quality jewelry with integrity, honesty, and to augment our indigenous cultures. We seek to improve technical and marketing opportunity for jewelers while educating the consumers of their purchase.

CIAC provides consumer education and workshops on authentic Indigenous arts and culture. Providing a greater understanding of the customs and traditions in the arts. To assure and assist in true representation of Native arts in accordance of (Public law 101-644) 2000 Indian Arts and Crafts Enforcement Act and (Public law 106-497) Truth in advertising and misrepresentation. Known as IACA of 1990.
